

What is Iyashi?

Iyashi is a Japanese word which means to heal & balance the body, mind and spirit. The Iyashi Bracelet is designed as full spectrum scalar energy tool to clear your energetic field bringing your body, mind and spirit back into a balanced healthy state. The Japanese discovered many thousands of years ago the art of making life-giving ceramics from semi-precious minerals.

Negative ion scalar energy bracelet

Basic User Guide and FAQ

Balance of Mind Body and Spirit

Technology & Benefits

Iyashi Bracelets are based around our proprietary Iyashi Ceramic Technology and Biometric Frequency Infusion Technology (BFIT).

Each Iyashi Bracelets has 17-22 beads, which are made of solid Iyashi Ceramics. These beads have a powerful negative ionic output which recharges the body. Our body needs negative ions to function. These negative ions also act as a EMF protector.

How to Use

You can wear the Iyashi Bracelet on either wrist or one on each wrist. The Iyashi Bracelet can be worn on your wrist or up your forearm wherever you find it most comfortable. For maximum benefits the Iyashi Bracelet should fit snugly with just a little slack.

- It is OK to get the Iyashi Bracelets wet while showering or swimming etc.
- Avoid overstretching the bracelet.
- If broken the bracelet can be re-strung with Stretch Magic 1mm Bead and Jewelry Cord.

Scalar Energy Card

The Authenticity card included with this bracelet also works as its own scalar energy device. The card is embedded with powerful negative ions. Negative ions are very beneficial and are like anti-oxidants in the air.

To receive the benefits of this scalar energy card keep it near your body such as in your pocket. You can also place the card against parts of your body for enhanced effects on that specific area. Use it in conjunction with your Iyashi Bracelet for the best results.
